MAKE YOUR HISTORY

Some of the specialties we offer

- Events indoors up to 55 people
- Large events and receptions on the grounds for up to 300 guests
- Suggested vendor and wine/beverage lists available
- Photography both inside the house and on the grounds
- Open, cash and combination bar options
- Self-guided tour of the Lincoln-Tallman House bedrooms and main floor for your guests

• LINCOLN'S ROOM/GUEST BEDROOM •

Start your special day in the bedroom where Abraham Lincoln slept in 1859. The upstairs of the Lincoln-Tallman House has 6 bedrooms, 3 of which are available for you and your wedding party to use to get ready! Other private spaces include the finished basement and tea room with easy access to the restrooms.

• FRONT PORCH/LAWN •

After saying "I do", or if you have a large ceremony, party with your guests on the grounds with the sight of the grand Lincoln-Tallman House as your perfect backdrop. Dance the night away under the stars, or under a tent!

• LIBRARY/SITTING ROOM •

These two grand connecting rooms are perfect for hosting your more intimate ceremony. After descending the grand staircase, the sitting room and library naturally form a perfect aisle that leads up to a lovely marble fireplace. Capacity: 55

More than just weddings...

Bridal Shower - Already have a location in mind for your ceremony and reception? Spoil the yourself with Victorian decadence and historic charm and consider the Lincoln-Tallman House for your bridal shower!

Rehearsal Dinner - The Lincoln-Tallman House has hosted many lovely dinner parties and luncheons and has awed every guest in attendance. Choose from over 4 formal rooms for your dining experience, and consider a special tour for your guests. It's possible your tour interpreter may even show up in a hoop skirt!

Photography - Build in 1857 and with authentic furnishings, the Lincoln-Tallman House is a photographer's dream come true. As us about our rates to take your fashion, fine art, senior, and family photos inside the house.
